Let’s begin this month offering thanks to God for his blessing and provision throughout our more than 50 years of ministry.

Thanks!

As we have been studying through the Gospel of Luke in chapel, I have been reminded of the great power and authority of God, exhibited on earth through the life of Jesus and the work of the Holy Spirit. It is my hope that you will join us in prayer, always expecting to see God work and standing in fear and amazement at what he has done.
